TERM 3 Week 7

Dear Parents/Carers,

Good Counsel Primary School next week hits the big time with a famous act on our little stage. This year for NAIDOC week we have the one and only Christine Anu performing for our students. Many months of coordinating have gone into having Christine visit but it will be all worth it when next Tuesday she performs for us at 11.00am in the blue covered area.

We can call Christine a local as she was born in Cairns in 1970 and lived her early years on Saibai Island in the Torres Strait. Christine is a proud Torres Strait Islander woman. She began performing as a dancer, then back up vocalist, and released her first hit in 1993. Since then she has acted in film and theatre, had a television and radio career while continuing to perform. She has been nominated and won numerous ARIA Awards for her songs and music videos. Christine will be performing many of her hit songs including "Island Home".

We will have some seating for parents who wish to join us for her concert from 11.00am - 12.00pm Tuesday morning next week. Our NAIDOC week celebrations will continue Friday at our special NAIDOC Assembly on September 7.

This weekend we celebrate Father's Day. We all have a father, but the irreplaceable and unique role of a father is often little acknowledged. Fathers today are more likely to be closely involved and emotionally connected with their growing children than their grandfathers were. This is good news for children today. Fathers are a great gift to us all.

Happy Father's Day to all dads!

Bike Safety Day at GCPS was a great hit with Snr Constable Karl our Adopt-a-Cop and his new recruits talking with students before they hit the road in the blue covered area. Hopefully the number of traffic infringement notices for speeding, overtaking and driving on the wrong side of the road is not a reflection on the parents of our Prep to Year 2 students. Many thanks to Mrs Ah Shay, Snr Constable Karl and the Innisfail Police for a great morning.

We have many students at present with the flu and stomach upsets. Please highlight personal hygiene with them and if they are unwell keep them home from school to lessen the chance of these symptoms transferring to other students.

Regards Liam

Sacrament of First Eucharist Prayer Assembly...

Thank you Mrs Amber Di Carlo and Mrs Rosemarie Pensini for preparing the students for Friday's Prayer Assembly. Congratulations to the children of 4PD and the Sacramental candidates who so reverently acknowledged this special occasion that traditionally belongs in their year level.

Thank you Fr Kerry for celebrating the Masses in which the candidates were present to receive their first holy communion. Such precious memories made for the future. We continue to keep the following candidates in our prayers:

Cameron Barnes, Liam Ross, Ainsley Cavallaro, Ceira O'Brien, Latoya Domaille, Hannah Dryden, Madeleine Hill, Meg Hurney, Ryan Maccarone, Callista Masina, Kaelan Maxwell, Rhya Maxwell, Mia McLeish, Connor Onaindia, Thomas Van Bael, Grace Wone and Sandor Zieger.

Congratulations Fr Kerry...

Last week Fr Kerry celebrated 45 years of ordination.

Best wishes from all of us at GCPS and the very best for your overseas trip.

For our Fathers...

On Sunday we will celebrate Father's Day. We remember our fathers with love for the gentle ways they care for us. Let us pray for our fathers and the generations of fathers before them. You care for us, O God, as a father cares for his children. Bless, protect and strengthen all the fathers of the world. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Quote for the Week...

Bad times, hard times, this is what people keep saying; but let us live well, and times shall be good. We are the times: Such as we are, such are the times.
