GOOD COUNSEL PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

SEEK, LEARN AND SERVE

13th March 2018

TERM 1 Week 8

Dear Parents/Carers,

Well, as I sat in my office this morning to a beautiful sunrise and blue sky over the river to write my section of the newsletter, many thoughts of the past 4 days came flooding back (no pun intended). Weather events can be dramatic in our region and last week was possibly a surprise for many, but certainly they can become a reality. With so much local rain combined with well over 600mm on the Tablelands in a short period of time, flooding was inevitable. Some families were cut off from accessing school for a couple of days and others had water in and under their house. Some of our farming families have lost parts of their banana crops, sugar cane flattened and fruit trees under water. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during the next few weeks of cleaning up. If we can assist in any way please contact me at school. Thanks to Mrs C and Mrs Dunne who worked to keep families updated during the weather events of Thursday and Friday. Hopefully the new text messages were useful. Most of all, students have returned to school this week safe and full of great stories to share about crocodile sightings, catching mud crabs in their back yard and going home from school early.

Our Mini Olympics and P&F Meet and Greet had to be postponed and we will move it to the first Friday of Term 2 (April 20) as we have St Patrick's Concert this Friday and Feast of the Senses next weekend.

This week we have a number of special events and activities:-

- St Patrick's Night Choir - Friday 6.30pm Shire Hall
- Combined GCPS/Radiant Life Rugby League - boys play in the Development Cup final in Cairns Friday

- Good Counsel On Show (flyer insert) Saturday 17 March 11.00am - 2.00pm at Good Counsel College. Reagan O'Brien GCC School Captain will be carrying the Queen's Baton relay in Owen Street at 2.00pm Saturday. Our very own Mrs Amanda Romano (Prep School Officer) will be carrying the Commonwealth Games Baton over the railway line at 1.20pm.
- Finally, Sunday/Monday - several GCPS boys, Ben Roebuck, Chayse Briggs and Braithan Kuhn will play in the Peninsula Rugby League Championships in the Innisfail District team. We wish them every success.

This Friday we have two focussed events:
- Mini Vinnies Green Dress Day to celebrate St Patrick's Day - Gold coin donation going to the local Vinnies.

The second event is joining the National "Bullying. No Way" Day. Schools around Australia will be focussing on bullying prevention. Our role is to inspire others and to continue to foster a positive school climate which promotes respect and inclusion.

Each child will receive a wrist band which has the message "Bullying. No Way" that they can wear for the day. These will be handed out at assembly.

Yr 1 - 6 Oral Reporting Parent/Teacher interviews, please refer to teacher letters being sent home this week.

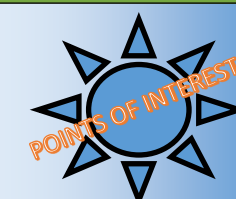

Year 5GS Parent/Teacher interviews will be held early Term 2 once Mrs Gallagher returns from leave.

Regards Liam

Sacrament of Baptism...

Congratulations Alannah Cini—baptised last Friday with family and classmates present. Our prayers are with you at this special time.

Sacrament of Reconciliation...

Sacraments and one's Life in the Church...

Relationships grow through communication. Communication is more than just words. For Catholics, the relationship with God means connecting with him through words and gestures. The Scriptures are God's words to us and the Sacraments are gestures of God's love. The Catholic Church has named and formally recognised seven sacraments as powerful ways God reaches out to connect with believers. The Sacraments of the Church are visible signs that God's presence is real and signs of his love.

Each of the seven sacraments of the Church emphasises a different dimension of one's relationship with God.

The Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist) highlight one's relationship with each person of the Trinity:

In Baptism one becomes a child of God the Father by being reborn spiritually. The symbols of water signify rebirth. Many of the prayers of baptism express belonging, being part of the family of God, and being heirs in God's kingdom. In Confirmation, one recommit to one's baptismal vows, and receives the gift of the Holy Spirit, being empowered to live the Christian life with conviction.

At one's first Communion (Eucharist), Catholics unite with Jesus through the mystery of Eucharist—the body and blood of Christ.

The Sacraments of Healing (Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick) highlight the merciful nature of God, while the Vocational (or Mission) Sacraments (Matrimony, Holy Orders) illuminate our call to intimacy with Him to share his love with others.

If your child expresses interest in being baptised, or you would like to have them baptised, please feel welcome to contact Angie at the Parish Centre on 40616633 to discuss this further. This applies to any member of the family who wants to become part of the sacramental life of the Church.

Yours in Catholic Education—Maria Caltabiano—Mrs C. APRE/APA/SEL
