TERM 4 Week 5

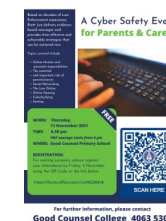

Dear Parents/Carers

GCPS was a sea of colour with students getting into the spirit of Melbourne Cup wearing their hats and ties, fascinators and handbags. I hope someone was lucky and won a sweep or picked a winner. The excitement at the finish line with so many Prep students was deafening. Congratulations to those students who won the 'home-made hat' Tuckshop vouchers for their creative dress-ups.

Next Thursday we have a visiting parent educator - Brett Lee (not the cricketer) who will be presenting information and strategies on how to protect your children in the CYBER WORLD. The talk has been organised by Good Counsel College but is being hosted in our Blue Area. The event is FREE and open to parents/carers from all our Southern Deanery Schools. Topics covered include:

- Online threats & personal responsibilities
- The importance of parents/carers
- Social networking
- The Law online
- Online gaming
- Cyber bullying

6.30pm 11/11/2021
(See flyer insert)

A sausage sizzle will be provided by GCC from 6pm.

This is a presentation every parent should attend.

Please RSVP for seating purposes and sign in upon arrival.

Our Year 5/6 students as well as GCC students will attend cyber sessions during the day with Brett Lee presenting.

Thankyou on behalf of all our teachers for the kind words and cards on World Teachers' Day last week. Well done Year 6s on a great assembly presentation.

Last days for Parents/Carers to complete the SRS school survey—closes Thursday.

Next week, the amazing 'Raintree Stump' will be revealed for all to see. It has required 8 coats of resin to protect it from the elements (mainly little people). Once revealed you will see a large photo of the tree in its full bloom and 2021 collectable coins to signify the date. Again thanks to Michelle and Rob Zahra for their creative work.

Congratulations to Lucas Bazzacco and Jack Martin on their efforts last weekend at the Ravenshoe Motorcycle Championships. Lucas (Year 4) placed 2nd in the 65cc class 7-10 years and was awarded Junior Rider of the Day. Jack (Year 1) placed 2nd & 3rd in races in the 50cc Demo division. Great riding boys!

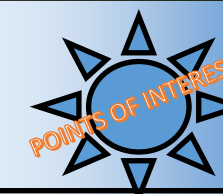

A huge congratulations to the GCPS Futsal Champions, winning the title for the third year running. Congratulations Mrs Hayley Russell for all the training and to all the teams who represented GCPS last week in Redlynch, Cairns with the great GCPS sporting spirit! (See photo p.3)

World Teachers' Day Prayer Assembly...

Congratulations to the Yr 6 students who managed to portray the teachers' idiosyncrasies with amazing accuracy, to honour and entertain on World Teachers' Day. Thank you to Mrs Maree Helm, Mrs Brooke Davis & Mrs Cheryl Green for their preparation of the students and thanks also to Mrs Amanda Speziali for the 'before going on leave' PowerPoint organisation. Thank you to the Yr 6 students who read and presented the teacher awards and the liturgy.

God, giver of life, You have blessed each of us with a variety of gifts. Help us to be examples of your love using what we have, and share the Good News taught to each one of us by Jesus. We make this prayer in the name of Christ, the master teacher.

Amen. Yours in Catholic Education—
